HB 2524 – Vexatious Requestor
House 2524 provides a process for agencies to seek relief from vexatious requestors. A vexatious requestor is defined as an individual whose sole intention in filing a request is to annoy or harass a local agency. In order to merit relief from such a requestor, a local agency shall be required to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence that a requestor’s sole intentions are to annoy or harass the local agency.

A local agency would be permitted to petition the Office of Open Records for relief; the petition would be submitted under penalty of 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 (relating to unsworn falsification to authorities), be provided to both the Office of Open Records and the requestor alleged to be vexatious and shall detail the conduct which the local agency alleges demonstrates vexatiousness. Such information would include, as appropriate:

1. The number of requests filed;
2. The total number of pending requests;
3. The scope of the requests;
4. The nature, content, language, or subject matter of the requests;
5. The nature, content, language, or subject matter of other oral and written communications to the local agency;
6. Conduct that the local agency alleges is placing an unreasonable burden on the local agency;
7. Conduct that the local agency alleges is intended to harass the local agency;
8. Any other relevant information.
