

Join Brandywine Virtual Academy and Philadelphia Virtual Academy's Academic Competition Teams!

Brandywine Virtual Academy (BVA) and Philadelphia Virtual Academy (PVA) will be holding their first-ever virtual Academic Competition on April 20, 2023!

To join, students are required to attend biweekly afternoon practice sessions and have no more than three absences from the practice rounds.

The Academic Competition provides an opportunity for BVA and PVA students to compete in a "college-bowl" format where students answer challenging questions from a variety of categories, including literature, math, science, American and world history, geography and contemporary events. If you are interested in participating in BVA's first-ever virtual Academic Competition, please sign up by January 12, 2023.
